Community Standards

All applicants are required to complete responses to a series of community standards questions on the application for admission. Responses to these questions are initially reviewed by the Office of Admissions and some cases are referred to the Community Standards Committee for review. An applicant must be approved by the community standards review process prior to being considered for admission. This community standards review process supports the University's goal of maintaining a safe learning community. Failure to submit complete responses and/or falsification of responses may result in revocation of the admission decision or dismissal if the student presents false information or an incomplete response is discovered after enrollment. Any incident resulting in any change to a community standards question subsequent to the application must be immediately reported by the applicant to the Office of Admissions in writing. Failure to do so may result in the revocation of the admissions decision or dismissal of the applicant after enrollment. In addition, registered sex offenders are not allowed to enroll in classes or participate in campus activities. Failure to disclose registration at any time shall result in immediate dismissal.

If you answer "yes" to questions 1-9 below, you are required to provide your own written explanation of the event(s) and a copy of the police incident and arrest report and/or a statement from an appropriate official summarizing the event(s) and the final disposition of your case. If you are/were not represented by legal counsel in connection with the event(s), in addition to your own written explanation, you must also provide court records summarizing the event(s) and the final disposition of your case. Print your full name at the top of each page, and date and sign each page. All documentation must be mailed to the Office of Admissions.
