

Privacy Policy

The Career Services Center Approach

The Career Services Center recognizes your right to privacy. We use security precautions to make sure any information we collect about you remains private. Certain portions of our web site <http://www.coastal.edu/career> may require that you to sign in or create an account. Due to licensing and other restrictions, the information in these areas is limited only to students of Coastal Carolina University and its recruitment partners. Your private information (which may include your name, address, e-mail address, and other resume information) is not shared with any individuals or organizations outside of The Career Services Center unless you have authorized us to do so via participation in one of our internship or placement programs.

Sites We Link To

The Career Services Center creates links to other Web sites which may help you in exploring career and education options. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these additional Web sites.

User Information

In order to evaluate which information we provide is most heavily used, how many visitors we receive, and how we might improve our service, The Career Services Center does collect and analyze information from people who visit our site. Information tracked may include your Internet address and which pages you visit. Personal information, such as your name and e-mail address, is not stored in this process. The Career Services Center Web site may use cookies, small bits of electronic information stored on your computer that can identify you and your preferences. You can turn off this feature if you do not want cookies stored on your computer: please consult your web browser's help feature for information on disabling cookies. However, please note that disabling cookies may negatively impact site performance. By using the Career Services Center web site, you agree to allow us to collect this information about your usage behaviors.
