CETL Mission Statement and Program Goals

The Center for Effective Teaching and Learning seeks to promote a culture of excellence in teaching and learning at Coastal Carolina University by facilitating the integration of proven pedagogical techniques into the instructional process and encouraging the development of a University-wide community of reflective practitioners.

1. To foster and increase CCU's reputation for teaching excellence. (Goal I-B)
2. To provide educational opportunities to all faculty members that encourage the use of research-based learning principles and techniques in planning and assessing their teaching. (Goals I-A, II-A, IV-A)
3. To facilitate new faculty members' transition into the CCU community and encourage their growth towards being outstanding teacher-scholars. (Goal IV-A)
4. To create a learner-centered environment, where faculty actively research the learning and development process. (Goals I-A, IV-B)
5. To foster and support the appropriate use of technology in the pedagogical process through the promotion of promising new technologies and the support and dissemination of proven ones. (Goals II-A, II-B)
