

THE JACKSON FAMILY CENTER FOR ETHICS AND VALUES PRESENTS:

TEA & ETHICS

Who are Your Neighbors?

The Global Challenges and Local Consequences of Immigration

Presented by Professors Pam Martin and José Mireles

March 22- 4:30 pm Edwards Recital Hall

March 29- 6:00 pm Myrtle Beach First Presbyterian Church

While the United States has been seen as the beacon of freedom and hope for millions of immigrants over the centuries, recent debates about immigration have clashed with our “melting pot” image. Does the United States have a duty to open its borders to global neighbors? How are the immigrants who already live here treated? South Carolina’s identity is mixed with migrant populations, labor support for our burgeoning tourism industry is heavily reliant on immigrants, and local services are overwhelmed by populations who cannot speak English. This “Tea & Ethics” session will focus on the global and local debates surrounding the controversies of immigration. Complimentary tea and cookies will be served!

349-4149

EHFA 274

Jacksoncenter@coastal.edu