

The Jackson Family Center for Ethics and Values presents Tea & Ethics

VIRTUE ETHICS and Sexuality

A person who is courageous, honest, compassionate and just—in short, a person who leads a life of moral virtue—is worthy of praise. Such a person is a role model and, if Plato is right, such a person will lead a happy life. But is it certain that such a virtuous person will handle sexual desires well? Rauhut will argue that the relationship between virtue and sexuality is more complex than often assumed by famous thinkers.

Presented by:
Nils Rauhut

Wednesday, September 17th at 4:30
Edwards Recital Hall

Thursday, September 25th at 6:00
Fellowship Hall of M.B. First Presbyterian Church