APPLICATION DEADLINE
WEDNESDAY, Jan. 20, 2016 by 4:30 P.M.

Return your complete application package to: The Wall Fellows Office, located in Wall 215.

Note: Your application must be date stamped as received by a representative of the Wall Fellows by the deadline date.

INSTRUCTIONS
The application must be typed (i.e. word processed). Hand-written submissions will NOT be accepted. Please submit a signed hard copy of the application, essays, and all items listed below to the Wall Fellows office (Wall 215) before the deadline. In addition to the hard copy, please email a copy of your application, including essays in MS Word to wallfellows@coastal.edu. Once you have turned in your application, it is final. We cannot accept any late paperwork.

When answering the essay questions on the next page of the application, those questions must be repeated on the submitted application. Answers must be double-spaced, with 12 pt. font, and using one side of the paper only.

In addition to this application form, please attach the following to your hard copy:

- A paper you have written while attending college. This paper can be from any class; it does not have to be business related.
- A current copy of your OFFICIAL transcript, available from the Registrar’s office, with your Fall 2014 grades shown.
- A copy of your current Spring 2015 class schedule showing classes, times, professors, and room numbers. Indicate any relevant athletic practice schedule or work schedule information that affects your spring schedule.
- A copy of your current resume in the approved business format. This format can be found on the Career Services, Resume Builder site (coastal.edu/career/resumehelp.html). Please attach a list of all student organizations in which you have taken a leadership role.
- A signed letter of recommendation from a CCU faculty member in a sealed envelope, which the faculty member has also signed across the seal. Write your name on the front of the envelope. Submit the sealed envelope with the rest of your application. For RTM and PGM majors, your adviser should write this letter. For all other majors, any professor who has significant experience with you should write this letter.
- Read all of the material in this package before signing the attached signature page.
- A Wall Fellow or a Wall Fellow representative will contact you regarding an interview time after Jan. 30, 2015. The first round of interviews will occur during the week of Feb. 9, 2015.

Wall Fellows Program Application Questions

1. Concerning your future education and career, how do you envision you will carve out your path and what tools will aide you in this? In your answer, please reflect on your short-term goals and the stepping stones you think will contribute to your professional development.

2. Building on your answer in the previous question, describe how you envision your career 10 years from now. What job would you like to have and what tasks would you like to be performing?

3. If you were to become a Wall Fellow, how do you think the program would aid you towards attaining your goals? Furthermore, what do you think it means to be a Wall Fellow and how will you contribute to the program?

4. Describe your most rewarding volunteer or community service activities since high school and what you have learned from them.

5. The noted American author M.F.K. Fisher once said, “Any travel that does not change one’s perspective on the world is a useless experience.” Tell us about a travel experience you had that changed your view of the world. In what way was your perception of the world different because of this experience?

6. List three books you have read since graduating high school - unrelated to religious texts (Bible, Koran, etc.) or your course work at CCU – and tell us why you chose each of these books.

7. When it comes to motivation and internal drive, what do you think drives you for self-improvement? Feel free to refer to a quote and explain how it relates to you.

8. According to Confucius, “Greatness is not achieved by never falling but by rising each time we fall.” Please describe a scenario where you failed to achieve your goal. How did you respond to this and how did this impact you both personally and professionally?

9. Think about situations in which you have been called upon or were required to be a leader. Describe the situation. Then, describe your leadership style and strengths. What do you think this says about your character? Use words, images or any other tools you find appropriate, but paint us a clear picture of this situation.

10. Think about a situation in which you have been called upon or were required to be a team member (not the team leader.) Describe the situation and what characteristics and behavior you think made you a valued team member. What were your feelings about having to be a team member and not the leader? Use words, images or any other tools you find appropriate, but create a clear picture of this situation.

11. What do you perceive the United States’ role to be in the global community and do you expect this role to change in the future? In this context, what do you think will be the greatest challenge for the U.S. over the next few years? Feel free to refer to business, political, or social occurrences you think may impact this.

12. Create your own question that you wish we had asked you and please provide your response.
