Mathematics Major Requirements
updated March 28, 2014

- Indicates a required prerequisite
- Bold indicates a required course, light indicates an elective course, and dotted indicates one of these two courses is required
- The notation in the upper right corner of the boxes indicates the semesters in which the course is offered.
- The electives listed here are those which are offered frequently; other electives may exist and students should check with their math adviser if they have questions.