Myrtle Beach Education Center | 900 79th Ave. N., Myrtle Beach, SC | 843.349.2767
Upcoming OLLI@CCU fundraisers

March 2 – Myrtle Beach Education Center – The Bobby Darin Story: Beyond the Song (XMUSC 650 M02). Instructor: Phil Bruschi. Although Bobby Darin has been gone for almost 40 years, his ongoing talent has withstood the test of time. A multifaceted entertainer, his hits ranged from rock to country to folk songs. He danced, sang and played drums, guitar, piano, vibes and harmonica. Bruschi’s tribute takes listeners through Darin’s early years, his nightclub act and the changes he went through in the 1960s; Bruschi performs many of Darin’s biggest hits. 3 to 5 p.m. Fee: OLLI members: $20; non-OLLI members: $25.

March 8 – Litchfield Education Center – Coffee, Doughnuts and Middle East Politics (XGOVT 420 L01); March 9 – Myrtle Beach Education Center – Coffee, Doughnuts and Middle East Politics (XGOVT 420 M01); March 10 – Conway – Coffee, Doughnuts and Middle East Politics (XGOVT 420 C02). Instructor: Samih Baalbaki. Join us for themed sessions consisting of a short presentation, questions and answers, and general discussion all while sipping coffee and enjoying doughnuts. Attend in one location or in all locations, as it won’t be exactly the same due to your participation. 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Fee: OLLI+.

Additions/Corrections/Cancellations/Update

To view the 2016 Spring OLLI catalog, course descriptions, instructor biographies and weekly cancellations, visit our page, OLLI Course Offerings and Cancellations, at coastal.edu/olli/courses. As a reminder, should the University and its centers have to close due to any inclement weather, information about delays and/or cancellations can be found on the University’s website at coastal.edu and on most news media’s broadcasts and websites.

*Note: Plan on attending your class. If we have not listed it under cancellations and/or you have not received a communication from one of our staff members, then your class is going forward.

NEW: Litchfield Education Center – Oil Painting (XART 139 L01). Instructor: Jane Woodward. Weds., 3/2-4/20, 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Fee: $100+.

NEW: Litchfield Education Center – Italian Conversation II (XITAL 317 L01). Instructor: Sarah Kelly. Thurs., 3/3-4/7, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Fee: $60.

NEW: Litchfield Education Center – The Highlights of 2 Samuel (XREL 872 L02). Instructor: Lydia Barrows. Mon., 3/7-3/28, 3 to 5 p.m. Fee: $40. Second Samuel describes the establishment of the “house of David” through which the promised Messiah will come. The main character in 2 Samuel is King David. David was described by God as a “man after God’s own heart,” not because he was perfect, but because he confessed his imperfections. We will discover that all men great and small have feet of clay as we witness David yield to temptations. Through his confession and repentance, David is restored to relationship with God even though he must suffer the consequences.

Instructor Spotlight

Michael Gay had his mind made up at the age of 6 that he wanted to be an artist. While he admires many artists for one reason or another, if he had to make a choice, his favorites are Rembrandt and Van Gogh. Rembrandt “was the consummate artist who could do it all, but I especially love his art for his deep sensitivity and insight into the human condition. His portraits are alive with thought and feeling.” Michael feels that “Vincent’s work speaks with such intensity and honesty that it changed my way of seeing. He held nothing back in his art. His letters can be profound and moving and are almost as interesting as his painting.”

Gay moved here in 1973 when his father was stationed at the Myrtle Beach Air Force Base, and, except for two years in Baltimore and a year in Colorado, he’s lived either in Columbia or Myrtle Beach. Michael loves to cook and learned by watching cooking shows. He has found that cooking moved from being a necessity to being something that relaxes him as well as affords him the opportunity to be creative. Michael enjoys a “good old burger and fries any day, one of my favorites. And curry rice (Japanese) and spare rib soup (Okinawan).”

Music of all types helps his creative juices flow, but when he’s painting, he listens to either classical or alternative (New Age) music. He is a fan of Celtic, Native American, Indian and American roots (Appalachian and the blues) music specifically. He finds “that a sense of melancholy or longing, or that this world can be cruel and beautiful and fleeting, seems to be a common thread” of the music he is drawn to, which circles back to his thoughts about Rembrandt and Van Gogh. Michael also enjoys happy music such as big band, the American songbook, and the Beatles.

When he’s not teaching, he’s studying and working to improve himself as an artist. Michael is a member of the ArtEscape Artists Group and participates in a weekly life drawing group; he is finding himself more involved with the local art scene. In addition, Michael is forming the Grand Strand Urban Sketchers and preparing for an art show to be held in April with two other artists.

Looking Ahead

OLLI and Coastal Carolina University events

- Feb. 29-April 1 – Denise Stewart-Sanabria: Quantum Continuum – Denise Stewart-Sanabria skillfully manipulates charcoal and other mediums on birch plywood to create environments. Her life-sized drawings depict people in various conceptual situations. They are placed within an environment in both observational and interactive groupings. Many of them emerge or partially disappear into walls. The human presence is intended to show an attempted civilization of the bestial, natural world of which humans are often reluctant to acknowledge they are a part of. Admission: Free and open to the public (no ticket required). Opening Reception: March 3, 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Gallery hours: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday-Friday. Rebecca Randall Bryan Art Gallery.

- March 1 – Musical Celebration of Women’s History Month – Patti Yvonne Edwards, associate professor of music, and female music faculty and students. Come join us for a celebration of the musical talents of female composers such as Clara Schumann, Alma Mahler, Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel, Libby Larsen and Margaret Bonds. Hear their stories and compositions as performed by the faculty and students of the Coastal Carolina University Department of Music. Admission: $7 (OLLI members must present student ID for discount; one ticket per ID), 7:30 p.m., Edwards Recital Hall.

- March 2 – Winter Solstice – Coastal Winds and Symphonic Band, Richard L. Johnson, professor of music, Tonya Propst, associate professor of music, and Raul Barcenes, assistant professor of music. Music by Frank Ticheli, David Holsinger, Ron Nelson, Alfred Reed and others will be performed. The CCU Coastal Winds and Symphonic Band represent the premier instrumental and artistic ensembles at Coastal Carolina University. The program includes music from all historical epochs, showcasing the high performance standards of CCU. Admission: $7 (OLLI members must present student ID for discount; one ticket per ID), 7:30 p.m., Wheelwright Auditorium.

- March 15 – Guitar Solo Performance with Daniel Hull – Join Coastal Carolina University faculty member Daniel Hull for an evening of classical guitar music. The program will encompass a wide range of styles and will include Manuel Maria Ponce’s “Sonata Romantica,” Carlo Domeniconi’s “Koyunbaba” and Johann Sebastian Bach’s “Chaconne in D minor.” Admission: $7 (OLLI members must present student ID for discount; one ticket per ID), 7:30 p.m., Edwards Recital Hall.

Ongoing programs/activities offered by OLLI or CCU partners

- March 6 – Beethoven & Blue Jeans – These great composers and their popular masterpieces need no formal introduction, so come and enjoy the concert in a less formal atmosphere. You will experience popular favorites full of unfettered romanticism and dazzling virtuosity from Handel’s glorious music written to accompany a royal fireworks display to one of the most famous violin concertos of all time. Wear your favorite pair of jeans if you like, settle in and experience an outstanding performance. Contact the Long Bay Symphony for season details and ticket information at 843-448-8379 or online at www.longbaysymphony.com. OLLI students receive 10 percent off all Long Bay Symphony performances.

- March 24 – SC Maritime Museum’s Annual “Burning of the Socks” – Goodbye, winter; hello, spring! The South Carolina Maritime Museum invites you to usher in the coming of spring and the arrival of boating season at the fifth annual Burning of the Socks. The tradition began in the mid-1980s at a boatyard in Annapolis, Md. Captain Bob Turner, who managed the boatyard, was forced by cold weather to wear socks with his Sperry Topiders while he worked on OPBs (Other People’s Boats) during the long winter months. One year, on the first day of spring, Captain Bob ceremoniously removed his socks, placed them on a paint... tray, doused them with lighter fluid and set them on fire. Then he drank a beer to celebrate! So the spring tradition of sock burning began, and there are now sock burnings in coastal communities across the country.
Captain Bob Turner and his family now live in Pawleys Island and are active members of our community. Bob has exhibited his sailboat at the Georgetown Wooden Boat Show, and he is a volunteer coach for the Winyah Bay Sailing Club, training young people to sail competitively. Captain Bob and his family will be special guests at this year’s sock burning. There will be hors d’oeuvres, seafood gumbo, landlubber gumbo, beer, wine, liquor and live music. Be sure to bring your winter socks to burn in the fire. The cost is $20 with a 10 percent discount for museum and OLLI members, 6 to 8 p.m. For more information, call 843-325-1800.

Ongoing through April 7 – Frank Lloyd Wright: Architecture of the Interior. Recognized around the world for his innovative style and modern designs, architect Frank Lloyd Wright originated and popularized the concept that structures should exist in harmony with humanity and their environment, a philosophy he called organic architecture. The concept extended not only to structures’ interiors, but also the interiors’ furnishings and ornaments – insisting that all parts should be as one. The exhibition is comprised on 28 framed works, including 20 reproduction drawings and eight photographs, and represents Wright’s most distinctive interiors. For more information, call the Franklin G. Burroughs-Simeon B. Chapin Myrtle Beach Art Museum at 843-238-2510.

Ongoing through April 21 – Joe Quinn: Underwater – Originally from New York City, Quinn now calls Myrtle Beach home. He is a professional photographer who specializes in underwater, nature, documentary and fine art imagery. Quinn’s work has been published in magazines, books and on the Web, most notably in Asian Geographic, National Geographic, Smithsonian and Dive News. He is a member of the Ocean Artists Society, a unique alliance of the world’s top marine life artists, sculptors, painters and photographers. For more information, call the Franklin G. Burroughs-Simeon B. Chapin Myrtle Beach Art Museum at 843-238-2510.
