Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration

Thursday, Jan. 14, 7 p.m. • Wall Auditorium

Join the University in celebrating the struggles and triumphs of Martin Luther King Jr. This campus wide event celebrates unity and diversity. The featured speaker will be Bishop Michael Blue, pastor of The Door of Hope Christian Church in Marion, SC. The Coastal Inspirational Ambassadors (Gospel Choir) will also be a part of this celebration. This Event is co-sponsored by Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

African American Music Through the Years

Wednesday, Feb. 10, 7 p.m. • Edwards Recital Hall

Various student organizations will come together in a collaborative effort to celebrate the art, history and achievements of African Americans through a musical tribute.

Sankofa African American Museum on Wheels

Thursday, Feb. 18

10 a.m. to 5 p.m. • Williams-Brice Small Gymnasium
Curator and South Carolina native Angela Jennings presents one of the foremost collections of African American history readily available and appropriate for all ages. The walk-through exhibit is a testament to the vast contributions that African Americans have made to this country and to the world.

Portraits of Courage: African Americans You Wish You Had Known

Wednesday, Feb. 24, 7 p.m. • Wall Auditorium

Portraits of Courage is an examination of overlooked African Americans and their contributions to American history. Surprised at the absence of African American figures in today's history books, playwright Colin Cox created a theatrical piece to help bring recognition to a few of those who have helped shape our country. One woman and one man portray the characters in this live presentation.

Gospel Sing Out

Sunday, March 7, 4:30 p.m. • Wheelwright Auditorium

A celebration of joyous and heart felt music, this annual event is a community favorite, which features the harmony of the Coastal Carolina University Inspirational Ambassadors (Gospel Choir). The program also showcases other university choirs and groups from the surrounding areas.
