

'09 AFRICAN-AMERICAN CELEBRATION

Martin Luther King, Jr.
Celebration
featuring Keith C. Braddy
Thursday, Jan. 15

1001 Black Inventions
Wednesday, Jan. 28

NAACP Centennial Celebration
Thursday, Feb 12

Black History Program
Thursday, Feb. 19

Gospel Sing Out
featuring the Coastal Carolina University
Inspirational Ambassadors
Sunday, March 8

Our Voice: A celebration of Black Women in Music
Wednesday, March 25

African-American Poetry
featuring Paul D
Wednesday, April 15

COASTAL CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

Office of Multicultural Student Services
P.O. Box 261954 • Conway, SC 29528-6054
www.coastal.edu

'09 Coastal Carolina University's AFRICAN-AMERICAN CELEBRATION

A celebration of art, history, music and achievements of the African-American culture

COASTAL CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

'09

Coastal Carolina University's AFRICAN-AMERICAN CELEBRATION

Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration

Thursday, Jan. 15 @ 7:30 p.m.

Wall Auditorium

Join the University in celebrating the struggles and triumphs of Martin Luther King Jr.

This campus-wide event celebrates unity and diversity. The featured speaker will be Rev. Keith C. Braddy, Pastor at Faith Temple

Church of God in Conway and Christian Life Center Church of God in Christ in Florence. This program will be co-sponsored by Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc. and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc.

Gospel Sing Out

Sunday, March 8 @ 4:30 p.m. • Wheelwright Auditorium

A celebration of joyous and heartfelt music, this annual event is a community favorite, featuring the harmony of the Coastal Carolina University Inspirational Ambassadors (C.I.A.) and groups from surrounding areas.

1001 Black Inventions

Wednesday, Jan. 28 @ 7 p.m.

Wall Auditorium

Presented by Pinpoints Theatre, "1001 Black Inventions" is a play about the lives of brilliant men and women. The audience is taken into the Twilight Zone, where a typical American family attempts to survive in a world without inventions created by Africans and African-Americans. Audiences laugh themselves into the realization that black ingenuity is an integral part of our everyday lives.

Our Voice: A Celebration Of Black Women In Music

Wednesday March 25 @ 7 p.m. • Wall Auditorium

Current and former cast members of Broadway's "The Phantom of the Opera", "Mama Mia" and Disney's "The Festival of The Lion King," have joined together to perform "Our Voice - A Celebration Of Black Women In Music." This show takes its audience on a journey through African-American history utilizing the music of African-American women.

The show includes songs like, "Hoe Emma, Hoe," a call and response slave song, and "Never Give Up," a song originally performed by one of gospel music's most celebrated contemporary artists, Yolanda Adams.

NAACP Centennial Celebration

Thursday, Feb. 12 @ 7 p.m. • Wall Auditorium

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is the nation's oldest civil rights organization. On Feb. 12, 2009 the Coastal Carolina University NAACP college chapter will celebrate 100 years of the NAACP and its many accomplishments. On this evening, there will be entertainment as well as education about the past, present and future of the NAACP. Please join us as we commemorate this monumental event.

Black History is American History

Thursday, Feb. 19 @ 7 p.m.

Wall Auditorium

Various student organizations will come together in a collaborative effort to celebrate the art, history, music and achievements of African-American culture.

African-American Poetry

Wednesday, April 15 @ 7 p.m.

Wall Auditorium

Enjoy African-American poetry recited and written by Coastal Carolina University students and staff. This event will showcase a special guest poet "Paul D." Paul D's unique imagery, word play and storytelling abilities are quickly solidifying him in the poetry world. In 2005 he won the Southern Fried Poetry Slams, competing against more than 100 poets in the world's biggest regional slam competition.

All events are free and open to the public. For more information, contact the Office of Multicultural Student Services at 843-349-2863.

COASTAL CAROLINA UNIVERSITY