SUMMARY:

Coastal Carolina University provides athletic opportunity on a basis of equality for all students that is guided by the expectations of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and subsequent regulations for providing equitable men’s and women’s athletic programs.

POLICY:

I. POLICY

The University operates according to the bylaws, regulations and rules of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA), of which the University has been a Division I member since 1986. The University is also a member of the Big South Conference.

More information regarding polices and procedures may be found at the following websites:
Coastal Carolina University Title IX Statement
Coastal Carolina University Athletic Department
NCAA
Big South Conference