POLICY:

I. POLICY

Coastal Carolina University recognizes and supports the rights of its members to the traditional freedoms of expression. The nature of an educational institution, which is dedicated to the search for truth and the development of the individual student for his role in a democratic society, protects these freedoms. Equally expected of students in the exercise of these freedoms is the weighing of possible consequences of their actions, especially those that involve conduct, which interferes with or infringes upon the rights of other students, faculty, or any member of the University community.
