The International Studies Minor is composed of courses with a strong international component. The minor is designed to improve a student's international awareness and to increase sensitivity to people of different cultures.

Requirements:

Students pursuing the International Studies Minor must consult with their major advisor and the advisor of the minor, Dr. Pamela Martin, to select courses that meet the program requirements. As a part of the application for the minor, students must meet all the courses' prerequisites and must explain their selections and how they complement their major course of study.

Students must select a total of eight (8) courses for the minor. A foreign language competency is required at the 210 level. If the student has studied another modern language at a comparable level, a substitution may be considered. Foreign Language 350 (Study Abroad) can be used to satisfy the language requirement. Students intending to obtain the minor in international studies might need to take lower levels of the foreign language (e.g., 110, 120, 130), and they should plan to do that ahead of time. A maximum of two courses from one field of study can be used toward the electives for this minor. No more than six (6) credits below the 300 level will be permitted for completion of this minor.

Application:

The student applies to the Advisor of the International Studies Minor, Dr. Pamela Martin. Both the student's advisor and the International Studies Minor advisor will sign the application for approval.
