

Policy Title:	Eligibility for Treatment
Policy Number:	STUD-315
Revision Date:	May 2024
Policies Superseded:	1842; STUD-142
Policy Management Area(s):	University Belonging and Student Affairs

SUMMARY:

The following criteria will be used in deciding if someone is eligible to receive therapeutic services (personal counseling) at Coastal Carolina University Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS).

POLICY:

- I. The following criteria will be used in deciding if someone is eligible to receive therapeutic services (personal or vocational counseling) at Coastal Carolina University Counseling and Psychological Services:
 - A. Students who are currently registered for credit in one or more courses.
 - B. Individuals who have been enrolled as students of the University during the spring semester and have registered for classes in the next fall semester.
 - C. Services provided do not include expert evaluation and testimony in a legal proceeding or service provision in areas of expertise beyond the scope of competent practice or service mission. Such students will be referred to appropriate specialists. For example, students anticipating or requesting an expert opinion so as to support a legal claim or suit will be referred outside of the University to practitioners specializing in the forensic issues of concern.