Community Standards
All applicants are required to respond to a series of community standards questions on the admission application. Responses to these questions are initially reviewed by the Office of Admissions. Some cases are referred to the Community Standards Committee for further review. An applicant must be approved by the community standards review process prior to being considered for admission. This community standards review process supports the University’s goal of maintaining a safe learning community. Failure to submit complete responses and/or falsification of responses may result in revocation of the admission decision or dismissal of the student if false information or incomplete responses are discovered after enrollment. Any incident resulting in any change to a community standards question subsequent to the application must be immediately reported by the applicant, in writing, to the Office of Admissions. Failure to do so may result in the revocation of the admission decision or dismissal of the applicant after enrollment. In addition, registered sex offenders are not allowed to enroll in classes or participate in campus activities. Failure to disclose registration at any time shall result in immediate dismissal.

If you answer “yes” to questions 1-9 below, additional documentation will likely be requested in order to complete your admission application. A separate request for this information will be mailed to you once your admission application is initially reviewed by the Office of Admission.
