

Kimbel Library Holdings Summary for 7/1/2015

Kimbel Library holds books and journals in print and electronic format; as of July 1, 2015, 75% of all books are e-books and 99% of journals are accessed electronically. 80% of ebooks held are provided by South Carolina's academic library consortium, the Partnership Among South Carolina Academic Libraries (PASCAL). With few exceptions, reference materials are purchased in electronic format with over 2500 e-reference titles available. Streaming videos comprise most of the library's film resources through subscriptions to film databases and purchased film collections.

As a selective government depository, the library provides access to many federal and all South Carolina state documents. Federal and state documents in print are incorporated into the circulating collection, and both print and electronic federal documents are accessed through the library's catalog.

The library's teacher education materials collection includes K-12 textbooks, juvenile and young adult books, puppets and realia. The non-print collection includes films in DVD, VHS, LPs, CDs, posters and maps.

In the 2014-15 academic year, the library added the following electronic resources:

EBSCO Art Source (incorporating Art and Architecture Complete and Art Index Retrospective)

EBSCO Communication Source (incorporating Communication and Mass Media Complete)

EBSCO Humanities Source (incorporating Humanities International Complete)

First World War Portal (Adam Matthew)

JSTOR Arts and Sciences Collection XIII

PrivCo

Proquest Natural Science Collection (incorporating GeoRef, Oceanic Abstracts and Aquatic Sciences and Fisheries Abstracts and 31 new indexes and journal collections)

Scientific Style and Format (CSE Style Online)
