Memorandum of Agreement
Horry County Schools and Coastal Carolina University
Socastee Elementary School

Horry County Schools (HCS) and Coastal Carolina University (CCU) agree to collaborate on the implementation of the Socastee Elementary School After School ESOL Program for parents of ESOL students and their children.

Horry County Schools and Coastal Carolina University agree to jointly hire ESOL professionals to implement and work in the Socastee Elementary School After School ESOL Program. This Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) shall take effect between HCS and CCU upon signing and shall include the 2016-2017 school year. The Socastee Elementary School After School ESOL Program shall be evaluated jointly by both parties with possible renewal of the MOA to be determined by July 30, 2017. The MOA may be amended by mutual written agreement of both parties.

Coastal Carolina University agrees to:

1. Partner with Socastee Elementary School (diverse school in Myrtle Beach, SC serving Grades K-5) to establish an after school ESOL program for parents of ESOL students and their children.
2. Provide $10,000 agreed upon by the Chanticleer Center for Literacy Education to support planning, implementing the Socastee Elementary School After School ESOL Program for parents of ESOL students and their children, and paying hired ESOL professionals and purchasing materials.
3. Chanticleer Center for Literacy Education will provide consultation and support through Dr. Jeanne Cobb, Director of the Chanticleer Center for Literacy Education.
4. Provide either South Carolina SLED checks or background checks by Accurate Background, Inc. for the hired ESOL professionals hired for the program.

Horry County Schools agrees to:

1. Employ after school teacher/s who have experience with ESOL and/or have ESOL certification at Socastee Elementary School at a rate of $30 per hour for a total number of 80 hours to plan, implement, teach and supervise the after school classes in the after school program for parents of ESOL students.
2. Identify a site program facilitator who is in charge of coordinating the program, collect evaluation materials, and be contact person who will receive a one time $1,000 stipend.
3. Hold the program on a regular basis from September 2016 to May 2017, serving around 30-40 participants and hiring three permanent ESOL teachers and having two substitute teachers committed in case any of the three teachers cannot teach. There will be three groups of participants, one group for each of the three permanent teachers, meeting twice a week in a designated space on site from 6pm-8pm.
4. Recruit participants in the program, evaluate them before and after the program, and provide them with materials.
5. Purchase and keep records of purchase of materials needed for the program.
6. Maintain a detailed budget with monthly reports to the Chanticleer Center for Literacy Education of how the money was spent.
7. Provide accurate numbers of who participated in the after school program and for how many weeks/sessions.
8. Hold a family literacy night once a semester in which both parents and children are involved literacy activities.

Please see below the proposed budget for how the money will be spent.
