2021-2022 University Manual

Qualifications for service on Faculty Senate and Standing Committees

4.5 Faculty Senate Bylaws

4.5.1 Membership Representation and Terms, paragraph 1, sentence 3:

“Regardless of its size, each College and the Library is entitled to at least two senators, excluding the senator representing the Associated Faculty.”

4.5.1 Membership Representation and Terms, paragraph 4:

“The Associated Faculty of each College will elect one senator from those at the university with the title of Lecturer or Teaching Associate. Senators from the Associated Faculty will have taught at least 12 credit hours in the calendar year prior to the beginning of their terms and must be teaching during the period of their terms, subject to the conditions previously set forth. Service on Faculty Senate in no way alters the expectations of, or rights granted to any associated faculty member.”

4.5.1 Membership Representation and Terms, paragraph 5:

“Senators holding the title of Lecturer, Teaching Associate, or Senior Lecturer will not vote on matters concerning tenure and promotion of the tenure track faculty.”

Standing Senate Committees that specifically mention Associated Faculty or exclude Associate Faculty by membership conditions.

4.7 Standing Faculty Committees

4.7.7 Faculty Development

“Membership: Nine to Twelve faculty (two elected from each College and one elected from the Library, and one elected from the Associated Faculty).”

4.7.8 Faculty Grievance

“Membership Conditions: Membership is limited to tenured faculty. No member may concurrently serve on the University Promotion and Tenure committee.”

4.7.9 Faculty Manual Review

“Membership: Ten faculty (six tenured faculty: one elected from each College and one elected from the Library; one representative elected from the Associated Faculty). Ex officio (nonvoting): Provost or Provost’s designee; the Senate Parliamentarian; and the Faculty Ombuds.”

4.7.10 Faculty Welfare

“Membership: Nine to twelve faculty (two elected from each College and one elected from the Library, and one elected from the Associated Faculty).”

4.7.18 University Promotion and Tenure

“Membership Conditions: Membership is limited to tenured Associate Professors/Librarians or Professors/Librarians who are not being considered for promotion during the years of service on this committee.”
