A completed Confidential Financial Statement must be on file before Coastal Carolina University will issue an I-20 or DS-2019.

United States universities are required by law to verify that students entering the U.S. have adequate financial resources to meet the expenses of the first year of their studies. Before we are authorized to send you a form I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility for Non-immigrant Student Status) needed to apply for your student visa, international applicants must confirm that they are responsible for paying all tuition, fees and living expenses for the entire period of intended study by completing the form on the next page.

Instructions:

Part I  Answer questions 1–6 completely.

Part II  Indicate the sources of your funding and the amount available from each source; have your sponsors verify their sponsorship by signing the form. Submit the required documentation as indicated below to show that you and your sponsors have available liquid assets equal to or greater than at least one year's cost to internationaladmissions@coastal.edu.

PART II: FINANCIAL INFORMATION

United States universities are required by law to verify that all students entering the U.S. have adequate financial resources to meet the expenses of the first year of their studies. University costs are subject to change and are expected to increase annually. You and your sponsor must sign verification statements A. and B. at the bottom of this page indicating that you are responsible for all costs. Check the appropriate statements below indicating where your first year of funding will come from (multiple sources are acceptable). Attach the appropriate financial documentation showing availability of one year’s funding.

Source of Funds

Check (✓) the boxes showing where your first year of funding will come from and indicate the amount that will come from that source. Only enter scholarship amounts that can be supported by award letters that have been already been received, signed, and returned. The total must amount to at least $41,948 (undergraduate) or $34,966 (graduate).
