Coastal Carolina University
International Student
Confidential Financial Statement

A completed Confidential Financial Statement must be on file before Coastal Carolina University will issue an I-20 or DS-2019.

Requirements:
United States universities are required by law to verify that students entering the U.S. have adequate financial resources to meet the expenses of the first year of their studies. Before we are authorized to send you a form I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant Student Status) needed to apply for your student visa, you must complete all parts of the Confidential Financial Statement.

All signatures and documentation provided must be less than six months old. Support may come from any combination of sources, including personal, family, scholarships, or sponsored funds. You must provide documentation for each source of funding. Your available funds must be equal or greater to the amounts listed below.

*Please provide proof of $4,000 for each dependent who will accompany you. The expenses above represent the costs for just one year. If your degree program is four years in length, then you will need at least four times the total amount listed above. The expenses listed above are reviewed annually and may be increased. Graduate programs are of shorter duration. Student employment opportunities, except graduate assistantships may not be used to show proof of support. Please visit http://www.coastal.edu/admissionsaid/tuitionfees/ for more details on expenses.

TOTAL

Students who are legal residents of one of South Carolina’s Sister-States are eligible to receive the South Carolina Sister-State Waiver (i.e. pay in-state tuition rates). Undergraduate students should insert $14,672 and graduate students should insert $8,370 on the South Carolina Sister State Waiver line above. For a complete list of South Carolina Sister-States and more information on what you are required to submit as proof of your citizenship/residence, please contact internationaladmissions@coastal.edu.

Please use the reverse side of this form to provide bank certification of personal and family funds. You may make an additional copy of the LETTER OF GUARANTEE for each individual or entity providing support. Students receiving an external scholarship or assistance through a sponsor must provide a letter of support on that organization’s letterhead. The amount of the assistance and the source of the funding must be noted on the letter of support.
