

GLOBAL AWARENESS PROGRAMMING

This joint initiative of the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Education is part of our efforts to promote programs that prepare Americans for a global environment and attract future leaders from abroad to study, learn and exchange experiences. Join us for a range of activities that celebrate internationalization and opportunities for learning about the world.

Movie: The Messenger: A Story of Joan of Arc

Tuesday, Nov. 14, 2017 5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. Lib Jackson Student Union A110 Theater

A part of the CCU Department of History's War and Society Film Series, this Luc Besson's 1999 historical drama depicts the life of the sainted French war heroine and martyr. Starring Milla Jovovich as Joan, this film begins with the young girl witnessing the atrocities of the English against her country during the Hundred Years' War (1337-1453). Joan is depicted having visions at age 13 that inspire her to go to battle and lead her people to victory. Following the screening, Brian Nance, CCU professor of history, provides the historical context in a discussion on 15th- century Europe.

Japanese Mythology in Film Series: Mushishi (Anime Viewing)

Wednesday, Nov. 15, 2017 4:00 - 5:30 p.m. AOC2 Room 311

Come to watch this anime feature and then discuss its meaning, structure and role, with the guidance of Ron Green, Associate Professor of Philosophy and Religion. The story features ubiquitous creatures called Mushi that often display what appear as supernatural powers. It is implied that there are many more lifeforms more primitive than "normal" living things such as animals, plants, fungi and bacteria, and Mushi is the most primitive of all. Due to their ethereal nature most humans are incapable of perceiving Mushi and are oblivious to their existence, but there are a few who possess the ability to see and interact with Mushi. One such person is Ginko, the main character.

International Tea Ceremony

Thursday, Nov. 16, 2017 1:00 - 3:00 p.m. Lib Jackson Student Union Rotunda

Come and taste teas as they are prepared around the world. We will have two tables with different assortments of tea from several parts of the world and have our students serve them and talk about how they are served in their countries.

International Poetry Slam
