Rhetorical Devices: Definitions and Examples

“Starkle, starkle little twink
How I wonder what you think.
Up above the sky so high,
Shining like a lightbulb.”

Don Powell

Isocolon - a figure of speech or sentence having a parallel structure formed by the use of two or more clauses of similar length

Float like a butterfly, sting like a bee
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
“Finders, keepers; losers, weepers”
“Ask not what your country can do for you, but ask what you can do for your country.”

Hypophora – asking a question and immediately answering it

You ask, what is our aim? I can answer in one word: Victory. Victory at all costs, victory in spite of all terror; victory, however long and hard the road may be, for without victory, there is no survival. Winston Churchill

There are those who are asking the devotees of civil rights, “When will you be satisfied?” We can never be satisfied as long as the Negro is the victim of the unspeakable horrors of police brutality. Martin Luther King, Jr.

What did I tell you? No shoes in the house!

Tricolon - a group of three similar phrases, words, clauses, or sentences (sometimes with an extender or climax)

“Tell me and I forget.
Teach me and I remember.
Involve me and I learn.”

Benjamin Franklin

It’s a bird, it’s a plane, it’s Superman

Friends, Romans, Countrymen

Father, Son and Holy Spirit

Truth, Justice and the American Way

Romeo, Romeo, wherefore art thou, Romeo

The good, the bad, and the ugly

Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness
Theme and Variations – I don’t think this needs to be defined!

“This is Just to Say” by William Carlos Williams:
I have eaten
the plums that were in the icebox

and which you were probably saving for breakfast

Forgive me
they were delicious
so sweet and so cold

Four Variations by Kenneth Koch

1
I chopped down the house that you had been saving to live in next summer.
I am sorry, but it was morning, and I had nothing to do and its wooden beams were so inviting.

2
We laughed at the hollyhocks together and then I sprayed them with lye.
Forgive me. I simply do not know what I am doing.

3
I gave away the money that you had been saving to live on for the next ten years.
The man who asked for it was shabby and the firm March wind on the porch was so juicy and cold.

4
Last evening we went dancing and I broke your leg.
Forgive me. I was clumsy, and I wanted you here in the wards, where I am the doctor!
Anaphora - repetition of a word or expression at the beginning of successive phrases (changes mood and tone, and/or emphasis)

Jack be nimble,
Jack be quick,
Jack jump over a candlestick

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the season of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair." – Tale of Two Cities, Dickens

"we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow—this ground." Abraham Lincoln

Enjambment - the continuation of a sentence without a pause beyond the end of a line, couplet, or stanza.

But, while he was shouting, he saw with surprise
That the moon of the evening was starting to rise
Up over his head in the darkening skies.
"What's THAT?" snorted Yertle. "Say, what IS that thing
That dares to be higher than Yertle the King?
I shall not allow it! I'll go higher still!
I'll build my throne higher! I can and I will!
I'll call some more turtles. I'll stack 'em to heaven!
I need 'bout five thousand, six hundred and seven!"
From "Yertle the Turtle" – Dr. Seuss

The Night was creeping on the ground!
She crept, and did not make a sound
Until she reached the tree: And then
She covered it, and stole again.
Along the grass beside the wall!
— I heard the rustling of her shawl
As she threw blackness everywhere
Along the sky, the ground, the air...
“Check” - James Stephens

To be, or not to be—that is the question:
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune
William Shakespeare, Hamlet
Antanaclasis - The repeated use of the same word or phrase, but with a different meaning each time.

Syllepsis - a figure of speech in which a word is applied to two others in different senses or to two others of which it grammatically suits only one.

Catachresis - The misuse or strained use of words, as in a mixed metaphor, occurring either in error or for rhetorical effect.

I hit a bat with a bat

Neither they nor it is working

She was very upset her team had been upset in the playoffs.

“The woods are lovely, dark, and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep”

Stopping by Woods on Snowy Evening, Robert Frost

"Time flies like an arrow; fruit flies like a banana"

“If you aren’t fired with enthusiasm, you will be fired, with enthusiasm.”—Vince Lombardi, American football coach

Last night I said these words to my girl
I know you never even try girl
Come on (come on) (repeat)
Please, please me, whoa, yeah, like I please you

You don’t need me to show the way, love
Why do I always have to say, love
Come on (come on)
Please, please me, whoa, yeah, like I please you

I don’t want to sound complaining
But you know there's always rain in my heart (in my heart)
I do all the pleasing with you
It's so hard to reason with you
Whoa, yeah, why do you make me blue?

Last night I said these words to my girl
I know you never even try, girl
Come on (come on)
Please, please me, whoa, yeah, like I please you Whoa yeah, like I please you“

Please, please me” – Beatles
Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears;
I come to bury Caesar, not to praise him.
The evil that men do lives after them;
The good is oft interred with their bones;
So let it be with Caesar. The noble Brutus
Hath told you Caesar was ambitious:
If it were so, it was a grievous fault,
And grievously hath Caesar answer'd it.
Here, under leave of Brutus and the rest—

For Brutus is an honourable man;
So are they all, all honourable men—
Come I to speak in Caesar's funeral.
He was my friend, faithful and just to me:
But Brutus says he was ambitious;
And Brutus is an honourable man.
He hath brought many captives home to Rome
Whose ransoms did the general coffers fill:
Did this in Caesar seem ambitious?
When that the poor have cried, Caesar hath wept:
Ambition should be made of sterner stuff:
Yet Brutus says he was ambitious;
And Brutus is an honourable man.
You all did see that on the Lupercal
I thrice presented him a kingly crown,
Which he did thrice refuse: was this ambition?
Yet Brutus says he was ambitious;
And, sure, he is an honourable man.
I speak not to disprove what Brutus spoke,
But here I am to speak what I do know.
You all did love him once, not without cause:
What cause withholds you then, to mourn for him?
O judgment! thou art fled to brutish beasts,
And men have lost their reason. Bear with me;
My heart is in the coffin there with Caesar,
And I must pause till it come back to me.
