CONTEST RULES

– One entry per group of 3 or individual.

– Entries must be prepared from scratch.

– All entries must be submitted covered and either on a disposable serving dish (for example, a paper plate enclosed in a Ziploc bag or covering) or covered on a reusable dish labeled with the owner’s name on the bottom (for example, in a labeled bowl, covered with plastic wrap).

*If you use your own dish or other personal property to present your entry, you do so at your own risk.
- Any leftover entries will be the property of the contest and will be used for the tasting activity.

- All entries must provide at least one dozen servings. For example, if entering a cake, please enter an entire cake; if entering cookies or cupcakes, please enter at least one dozen of them; if entering a dessert in another form or shape, please provide quantity sufficient to serve at least judges and attendees.

- Entries should be identified by the name of the dessert and the country of origin, for example, “Alfajores” from Argentina.

- Entries must be accompanied by the recipe, a photo of you preparing the entry, and a brief description of the cultural significance of the dish. This material must be displayed next to the entry for judges and the public to see.
  *Note: With your permission, the recipes will be collected for distribution to the public. If you choose not to give this permission, this will not affect whether your entry will win a prize.

- Registration is limited to twenty individual and teams contestants. Each individual or team that is planning to compete must register by March 26th or until registration capacity is reached, whichever comes first.
  TO REGISTER: Complete the 2020 LIS Dessert Registration Competition Entry Form on the LIS Events Page.

- All dessert entrées must be attended by someone who made them or a representative. If you are unable to attend the competition yourself, a friend may attend in your place to answer questions and help to serve the dessert. Unattended entries will not be included in the judging.

- Entries will be judged by a panel of judges selected by the competition’s organizers. Judges will include members of the community.

- Winning entries will receive a prize. The decisions of the judges are final.
