Tapestry is an ongoing, dynamic representation of the life of the humanities and fine arts at CCU. Offering compelling stories of people, events, trends and programs, Tapestry highlights the vast range of student and faculty experiences within the Edwards College — and beyond, through the lives of its alumni. This biannual publication, available in digital and print versions, embodies with stunning visuals the energy, beauty and essence of the Edwards College and all the people who live and grow within it.

Distribution: Tapestry is published in April and October of each year with a print run of 3,000 copies. The publication is mailed to Edwards College alumni, and distributed to all Edwards College faculty and staff; and available in racks throughout the Edwards College. Tapestry is also provided to prospective students and parents through the CCU admissions office.
