Dear Dr. Sightler,

Please accept this request for approval to close the American Studies undergraduate certificate program effective August 2024 at Coastal Carolina University (CCU). No new applications will be accepted into the program as of this date. This closure is pending approval from the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education (SCCHE) to terminate the undergraduate certificate. Approval is anticipated by July 2024.

The only student enrolled in the certificate program decided not to continue with the program in June 2023. With only four students ever being enrolled in the program and no completions since implementation in Fall 2016, it was recommended and approved by the faculty and administration for the program to be closed.

Enclosed are the substantive change cover letter, the teach-out plan, and a copy of the American Studies curriculum. The approval letter from the SCCHE will be provided upon receipt.

Please let me know if you have any questions or need clarification.

Sincerely,

Holly J. Legg

American Studies Certificate Curriculum

American Studies Certificate

The American studies certificate seeks to explore competing ideals and values that frame perceptions of American identity. Students engage with and analyze the various ways in which citizens and international observers view the American experience. Utilizing a multidisciplinary approach, students develop their understanding of important political and social issues, cultural trends, and historical periods in the United States. Students strengthen their critical thinking skills through close reading and analysis of materials such as art, literature, music, and popular culture. They improve their writing and communication skills through discussion, written analyses, and presentations. Finally, they develop research skills through independent research projects.

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Identify and demonstrate an understanding of the competing ideals that form the ethos of the United States.
2. Demonstrate an ability to think critically and draw connections between changing American values and the expression of those values in our politics and culture.
3. Demonstrate cultural literacy through familiarization with classic works of American art, literature, and music.
4. Synthesize information effectively in forming oral and written arguments about interdisciplinary topics related to American Studies.
5. Conduct independent research in the field of American Studies.
