October 2019 Newsletter

Curated Content

FESS 215: Bridging Genre on the Housing Crisis

The world has been homogenizing. More and more people are downgrading to the suburbs, moving from downtown to suburban areas and vice versa. What are the factors that contribute to this? Do they affect our understanding of housing as an economic issue? This talk will address these questions and more.

Cultural Politics and Economics Lecture Series

Students

CCU Real Estate Awards

The CCU Real Estate Awards will be held at Coastal Carolina University on Monday, December 2, beginning at 6 p.m. with a reception at 5 p.m. in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

Opt out

Real Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

Estate Club

Dues

Fees

Join the CCU Real Estate Club

To view information on nominees and award winners, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Sponsor CCU’s 2019 Real Estate Awards

Join the CCU Real Estate Club’s 2019 Real Estate Awards. Over eight sponsorship opportunities are available. To learn more, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram @GrantCenterCCU.

Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

The world has been homogenizing. More and more people are downgrading to the suburbs, moving from downtown to suburban areas and vice versa. What are the factors that contribute to this? Do they affect our understanding of housing as an economic issue? This talk will address these questions and more.

Cultural Politics and Economics Lecture Series

Students

CCU Real Estate Awards

The CCU Real Estate Awards will be held at Coastal Carolina University on Monday, December 2, beginning at 6 p.m. with a reception at 5 p.m. in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

Opt out

Real Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

Estate Club

Dues

Fees

Join the CCU Real Estate Club

To view information on nominees and award winners, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Sponsor CCU’s 2019 Real Estate Awards

Join the CCU Real Estate Club’s 2019 Real Estate Awards. Over eight sponsorship opportunities are available. To learn more, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram @GrantCenterCCU.

Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

The world has been homogenizing. More and more people are downgrading to the suburbs, moving from downtown to suburban areas and vice versa. What are the factors that contribute to this? Do they affect our understanding of housing as an economic issue? This talk will address these questions and more.

Cultural Politics and Economics Lecture Series

Students

CCU Real Estate Awards

The CCU Real Estate Awards will be held at Coastal Carolina University on Monday, December 2, beginning at 6 p.m. with a reception at 5 p.m. in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

Opt out

Real Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

Estate Club

Dues

Fees

Join the CCU Real Estate Club

To view information on nominees and award winners, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Sponsor CCU’s 2019 Real Estate Awards

Join the CCU Real Estate Club’s 2019 Real Estate Awards. Over eight sponsorship opportunities are available. To learn more, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram @GrantCenterCCU.

Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

The world has been homogenizing. More and more people are downgrading to the suburbs, moving from downtown to suburban areas and vice versa. What are the factors that contribute to this? Do they affect our understanding of housing as an economic issue? This talk will address these questions and more.

Cultural Politics and Economics Lecture Series

Students

CCU Real Estate Awards

The CCU Real Estate Awards will be held at Coastal Carolina University on Monday, December 2, beginning at 6 p.m. with a reception at 5 p.m. in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

Opt out

Real Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

Estate Club

Dues

Fees

Join the CCU Real Estate Club

To view information on nominees and award winners, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Sponsor CCU’s 2019 Real Estate Awards

Join the CCU Real Estate Club’s 2019 Real Estate Awards. Over eight sponsorship opportunities are available. To learn more, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram @GrantCenterCCU.

Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

The world has been homogenizing. More and more people are downgrading to the suburbs, moving from downtown to suburban areas and vice versa. What are the factors that contribute to this? Do they affect our understanding of housing as an economic issue? This talk will address these questions and more.

Cultural Politics and Economics Lecture Series

Students

CCU Real Estate Awards

The CCU Real Estate Awards will be held at Coastal Carolina University on Monday, December 2, beginning at 6 p.m. with a reception at 5 p.m. in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

Opt out

Real Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

Estate Club

Dues

Fees

Join the CCU Real Estate Club

To view information on nominees and award winners, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Sponsor CCU’s 2019 Real Estate Awards

Join the CCU Real Estate Club’s 2019 Real Estate Awards. Over eight sponsorship opportunities are available. To learn more, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram @GrantCenterCCU.

Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

The world has been homogenizing. More and more people are downgrading to the suburbs, moving from downtown to suburban areas and vice versa. What are the factors that contribute to this? Do they affect our understanding of housing as an economic issue? This talk will address these questions and more.

Cultural Politics and Economics Lecture Series

Students

CCU Real Estate Awards

The CCU Real Estate Awards will be held at Coastal Carolina University on Monday, December 2, beginning at 6 p.m. with a reception at 5 p.m. in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

Opt out

Real Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

Estate Club

Dues

Fees

Join the CCU Real Estate Club

To view information on nominees and award winners, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Sponsor CCU’s 2019 Real Estate Awards

Join the CCU Real Estate Club’s 2019 Real Estate Awards. Over eight sponsorship opportunities are available. To learn more, visit coastal.edu/business/grantcenter.

Follow us on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram @GrantCenterCCU.

Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

FIABCI: Bringing Justice to the Housing Crisis

The world has been homogenizing. More and more people are downgrading to the suburbs, moving from downtown to suburban areas and vice versa. What are the factors that contribute to this? Do they affect our understanding of housing as an economic issue? This talk will address these questions and more.

Cultural Politics and Economics Lecture Series

Students

CCU Real Estate Awards

The CCU Real Estate Awards will be held at Coastal Carolina University on Monday, December 2, beginning at 6 p.m. with a reception at 5 p.m. in the College of Business’ Wall 205.

Opt out

Real Estate Economics course.

In addition to economics and quantitative analysis, the course is a part of the university’s Politics and Economics Lecture Series. The talk will be held in the College of Business’ Wall 205.