Understanding when my instructor is online and class does not have a scheduled day/time

Professor Locality: Online.
Student Locality: Online.
Class Temporality: The class is asynchronous (students participate at different times).

The instructor is teaching a distance learning course that is designated with a “D” in the course section and the day/time is listed as “TBA.” The instructor provides the material and due dates online and students access course material according to their own schedule. The instructor may or may not offer optional live sessions.
