

“Spirit of the Chanticleer” Award

“Spirit of the Chanticleer” Award

The goal of the “Spirit of the Chanticleer” Award is to recognize students who demonstrate excellence in school spirit as part of Homecoming Week. Students who are nominated are also required to pick a platform that they are passionate about in order to promote as a part of the award process.

Nomination Process: Faculty, staff, and students will nominate students who demonstrate excellence in the school spirit. Self-nominations will be accepted.

Deadline for Nominations: Thursday, October 15 at 5 p.m.

Nomination Link

<https://coastal.campuslabs.com/engage/submitter/form/start/447099>

Organization Competition: Student Organizations competing in the Homecoming Competition may nominate as many students as they wish, BUT will only receive points for nominating 2 individuals. The maximum points possible is 200 (100 points for each application). In order to receive the points, the nominees must complete the application process.

Application Process and Criteria:

Deadline for Applications - Wednesday, Oct. 21 at 5 p.m.

- Initial Applicants
 - 2.75 GPA
 - Good standing with the University
 - Demonstrated involvement on campus
 - Video response to:
 - “What does school spirit mean to you, and how do you show it?”; AND
 - “What is a platform, social awareness issue, non-profit, etc. that you are passionate about and why?”

- Finalists
6-8 finalists will be named, decided on by a committee of faculty and staff members.
 - Selected based on the results of the application, video, and possible interview process. (Interviews may be requested depending on the number of quality applicants.)
 - A committee will review applications to determine finalists or need for interviews.
 - Finalists will be announced on Prince Lawn on Monday, November 2 at 3 p.m. The announcement will also be live-streamed on the @ccuinvolved Instagram.

- Chanticleer Spirit Award - Given to two of the finalists – one whose classes are primarily in person and one who primarily has online classes (over 75% online).
 - Campus-wide voting will be Monday, November 2 through Friday, Nov. 6 via Coastal Connections
 - A video highlighting the finalists will be presented at halftime of the football game on November 7 with the winner being announced directly afterward. No individuals will be present on the field. The winner will be able to pick up their trophy on the Pepsi Patio after the announcement.
 - A ticket to the game, plus a ticket for one other CCU student will also be provided to you.

Finalist will receive:

A “Spirit of the Chanticleer” branded pullover.

Winners will receive:

A unique award trophy and a $250 book scholarship