COASTAL CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

LOCK ON TO THE CHANTS

BASEBALL LOCKER CAMPAIGN

WATSON STADIUM / VROOMAN FIELD

Now is the time!

LOCK IN YOUR OPPORTUNITY

With Locker Naming Rights

Be There on Game Day

No other Division I baseball facility in the country will provide better game-day preparation for its athletes and coaches than the newly renovated Watson Stadium/Vrooman Field. The team's locker room will not only provide essential space, but every detail is designed to showcase Coastal Carolina University's athletic excellence.

Now you can demonstrate your commitment by putting your name on a player's or coach's locker. As the Chanticleers prepare to take the field before every home game, your name will help provide the team with additional support.

Each locker will be approximately 36 inches wide and will feature amenities such as ventilated storage and back-lit name plates.

You can claim a co-naming right to a player's locker for a gift to the Baseball Locker Campaign of $1,000, or a coach's locker for a gift of $1,500. Naming gifts can be paid to the locker campaign over four years.

Donors can request a specific locker number, but each locker can only handle two naming opportunities, and once they are full, no more naming plates will be added. Each naming plaque will provide up to two lines of naming information.

Chanticleer supporters may list:

- Donor's, children's or loved one's name
- Years attended CCU (if applicable) or slogan

Former Chanticleer student-athletes may list:

- Player's name and jersey number
- Years played

Lock in your naming opportunity by completing the form on the next page. But hurry: the Chanticleer Athletic Foundation will assign lockers as it receives donations. Don't miss your chance!

For more information on the locker campaign or other giving opportunities, please contact Mark Roach, Executive Director, Chanticleer Athletic Foundation, 843-349-2964, mroach@coastal.edu, or Chris Johnson, Director of Development, 843-349-2466, cjohnson@coastal.edu.
