Dear OLLI Members and Friends:

Happy New Year!

We are busy taking registrations and are gearing up for the launch of the spring semester on Tuesday, Jan. 19.

Catalogs have been distributed around the Grand Strand. Thank you to the volunteers, instructors and volunteers who have made some distribution runs for us. If anyone would like to make some catalog deliveries for us, please just call one of the centers and we will get them ready for you. We typically deliver to the libraries, retirement communities, and medical and real estate offices. Some of our snowbirds bring catalogs to the condos they are residing in while at the beach.

We have added new classes and have made some updates to classes. Make sure to look over the new and updated class postings so you have the most up-to-date class information.

Looking forward to a seeing our students this semester!

OLLI Buzz . . .

Congratulations to Casey Keck and her family as they welcomed their newest member, baby girl Grayson, over the weekend. Wishing them all the best!

We are so happy to welcome the newest member of our team, Danielle Novotny. Danielle will be working out of all of our centers providing staff support. Make sure to stop by and say hello to her.

We are working to create a better and more informative OLLI website for you. We invite your comments and suggestions on both this new newsletter format and the website changes. You may send suggestions to us at OLLI@coastal.edu.

Don't forget to visit us at coastal.edu/olli or on our Facebook page for updates and announcements.

OLLI@CCU Bulletin Board – This bulletin board will be used for our OLLI students, instructors, partners and nonprofit groups who are looking for OLLI opportunities or needing volunteers. If you would like to have something posted to the board, please contact Casey Keck at 843-349-5002.

OLLI and Coastal Carolina University events

- Jan. 14 – Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration: You, too, can be a drum major for justice, peace and righteousness. Come join the University community in a celebration that commemorates Martin Luther King Jr.'s legacy of unity and inclusion. Free and open to the public. 7 p.m., Wheelwright Auditorium. For more information, call 843-349-ARTS (2787).
- Jan. 15 – Brown Bag and Birdsong: a celebration of nature in music: Bring your lunch and join Patti Edwards and Elsie Pollock for a relaxing program of music inspired by the songs of birds. Pollock is a well-known local pianist and teacher with a deep interest in bird-watching. Pollock and Edwards have researched several songs that were inspired by the actual calls of birds, and they will demonstrate examples of transcribed calls in music by Johannes Brahms, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and John Jacob Niles. Free and open to the public. Noon, Johnson Auditorium. For more information, call 843-349-ARTS (2787).
- Jan. 19-Feb. 18 – Nick DeFord: Old Haunts: Nick DeFord explores the visual culture of cartography, occult imagery and other structures of information to examine the relationship of identity, space and place. These mysterious themes may be the habitation of monsters, centers of conspiracy, occult devices or vortices of mysticism. His work questions the delicacy of known world and re-identification within viewers of a sense of place and the unknown. Admission: Free and open to the public. Gallery hours: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday – Friday. Closing reception: Feb. 18, 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. Rebecca Randall Bryan Art Gallery.

- Feb. 6-27 – Great Decisions 2016: The Great Decisions Program is a community forum on international affairs, national security and U.S. foreign policy. Begun in 1954, it is the flagship program for the Foreign Policy Association, a nonpartisan, nongovernmental organization, and is the oldest and largest grassroots world affairs educational program of its kind in the country. The Great Decisions Program’s goal is to discuss, debate and learn about international affairs, national security and U.S. foreign policy. The program will be held Saturdays, 10 a.m. to noon during the month of February at the Myrtle Beach Education Center, 900 79th Ave. N., Myrtle Beach. Look for more information over the next few weeks.

Ongoing programs/activities offered by OLLI or CCU partners

- Jan. 14-17 – “It’s Only A Play” – It’s the opening night of The Golden Egg on Broadway, and the wealthy producer (Julia Budder) is throwing a lavish party in her lavish Manhattan townhouse. Downstairs the celebrities are pouring in, but the real action is upstairs where a group of insiders have staked themselves out in the producer’s bedroom, waiting for the reviews to come in. Included are the excitable young author; the brilliant but unstable director (who courts failure and is devastated when his work is well-received); the pill-popping leading lady (who is hoping to revive her career after a series of flop movies); and the playwright’s best friend, an egotistical but insecure comic actor who passed up a chance to star in the play for a television series – which has since been cancelled. As euphoria slides into despair, the narcissism, ambition, childishness and just plain irrationality that infuse the theatre and its denizens take over, and as the curtain falls plans are eagerly afoot for their next venture – this one is sure to be the hit they have all been hoping for. For showtimes and ticket information, call Theatre of the Republic at 843-488-0821.
- Jan. 14-April 21 – Joe Quinn: Underwater – Originally from New York City, Quinn now calls Myrtle Beach home. He is a professional photographer who specializes in underwater, nature, documentary and fine art imagery. Quinn’s work has been published in magazines, books and on the Web, most notably in Asian Geographic, National Geographic, Smithsonian and Dive News. He is a member of the Ocean Artists Society, a unique alliance of the world’s top marine life artist, sculptors, painters and photographers. For more information, call Franklin G. Burroughs-Simeon B. Chapin Myrtle Beach Art Museum at 843-238-2510.
- Jan. 17 – BEAUtea by the Sea – The Long Bay Symphony Guild – Enjoy a buffet luncheon and celebration of Myrtle Beach. Don’t miss this whimsical presentation about beachwear of the past by Marilyn Keyser. Local historian, author and archaeologist Susan Hoffer McMillan will share her stories of the history of Myrtle Beach. Music performed by the Long Bay Symphony Youth Orchestra Ensemble. All proceeds benefit the Long Bay Symphony and the Long Bay Symphony Youth Orchestra. $40 per person, 1 to 4 p.m. at Pawleys Plantation. For information and reservations, call the symphony office at 843-448-8379. OLLI members with current ID cards receive 10 percent off performances. For season details, visit www.longbaysymphony.com.
- Jan. 21 – Art & Soul of Hobcaw Barony – Tour Hobcaw House and see the Baruch family art collection and learn of famed artists Rockwell Kent, Sir Alfred J. Munnings, Louis Aston Knight, Mark Catesby and others. The lecture includes works not normally displayed on the tours. 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. For ticket information, call Belle W. Baruch Foundation’s HobcawBarony at 843-546-4623.

- Jan. 27 – History for Lunch with Mac McAlister – Robert McAlister will give a lunch talk at the South Carolina Maritime Museum about his recent nonfiction book titled “Georgetown’s North Island, A History.” He will tell the story of South Carolina’s oldest operating lighthouse, built in 1811, which stands alone on North Island at the mouth of Winyah Bay. He will also tell stories of the fascinating owners of North Island, including the Boston Red Sox owner, Thomas Yawkey, and Confederate General E. P. Alexander. OLLI member tickets are $18 each – includes lunch. For tickets, call 843-520-0111.
- Jan. 29-Feb. 21 – “Spinning Jenny” – A world premiere by Kevin D. Ferguson. Sometimes life is a merry-go-round, and sometimes it’s hard to get off. When Jenny meets Cal, she discovers the world outside the carnival midway and the schemes of her father, Alfie, forcing her to choose between the life that she’s known or a chance for a new life. Performance times: Thursday-Saturday, 7:30 p.m.; Sunday, 3 p.m. Preview performance on Jan. 28. For ticket information, call Atlantic Stage at 1-877-ATS-TKTS(1-877-287-8587).
- Ongoing through April 7 – Frank Lloyd Wright: Architecture of the Interior. Recognized around the world for his innovative style and modern designs, architect Frank Lloyd Wright originated and popularized the concept that structures should exist in harmony with humanity and their environment, a philosophy he called organic architecture. The concept extended not only to structures’ interiors, but also the interiors’ furnishings and ornaments – insisting that all parts should be as one. The exhibition is comprised on 28 framed works, including 20 reproduction drawings and eight photographs, and represents Wright’s most distinctive interiors. For more information, call Franklin G. Burroughs-Simeon B. Chapin Myrtle Beach Art Museum at 843-238-2510.
