SUMMARY:

It is the policy of Coastal Carolina University to prohibit discrimination on the basis of age, color, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, national origin, race, religion, sex, or veteran’s status in regard to the administration of all campus programs, services and activities including intercollegiate athletics, and the admission of students, employment actions, or other sponsored activities.

POLICY:

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and certain other federal and state laws prohibit discrimination in education programs and activities operated by Coastal Carolina University. Coastal Carolina University complies with the requirements of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. Sec. 1681, et seq., and subsequent regulations, which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex, including pregnancy and parental status, in all programs and activities receiving federal financial assistance. Coastal Carolina University receives such assistance and complies with this law and its implementation of regulation.

To ensure compliance with Title IX, the President of the University has designated the Title IX Coordinator as the primary contact responsible for developing, adopting and/or assuring the dissemination of the University’s nondiscrimination policy and for making the policy available to the University community. In addition, the Associate Athletics Director/Student-Athlete Enhancement and Senior Women’s Administrator will make the policy available to student-athletes as required to be in full compliance with the NCAA.

The Office of Human Resources and Equal Opportunity will make the policy available to faculty, staff, the University community and the public.

Inquiries concerning the application of these laws to programs and activities of Coastal Carolina University or any individual who believes he or she has been discriminated against in violation of the University’s nondiscrimination policy, including sexual harassment or gender discrimination, or who has witnessed discrimination against another, may obtain information and assistance regarding the University's policies and responsive processes from the following resources:
