

Policy Title:	College Requirements for Academic Probation
Policy Number:	ACAD-137
Revision Date:	February 2024
Policies Superseded:	None
Policy Management Area(s):	Faculty Senate

SUMMARY:

Students who are placed on academic probation, as defined in the Coastal Carolina University Catalog, must complete the requirements set forth by their academic college in addition to the requirements that are listed in the Coastal Carolina University Catalog. Modifications to college specific policies must be approved by the Academic Affairs Committee, Faculty Senate and the provost.

POLICY:

I. POLICY

Students who are placed on academic probation, as defined in the Coastal Carolina University Catalog, and have earned 30 or more credit hours must complete the requirements set forth by their academic college in addition to the requirements that are listed in the Coastal Carolina University Catalog. Failure to complete these requirements in the semester in which they are assigned could result in a student remaining on academic probation, regardless of their earned cumulative GPA. Students who have earned less than 30 credit hours and are on academic probation must comply with ACAD-140. College-specific policies are developed by the Office of the Dean of each academic college. Modifications to college-specific policies must be approved by the Academic Affairs Committee, Faculty Senate and the provost.

A. Wall College of Business

Business students who have earned 30 or more credit hours, including all business majors, pre-majors and undeclared business majors, and are placed on academic probation must complete the following college specific requirements:
