

Celebration of The Mid-Autumn Festival

Zhōngqiūjié or The Mid-Autumn Festival is widely celebrated by the Asian communities around the world. Originally from China, the festival is an important occasion for family reunions while appreciating the full moon together.

Join us at our annual celebration at CCU and make friends through fun activities, including lantern painting, mooncake tasting, and poetry reading.

Friday, Sept. 29, 5-6:30 p.m.

Alford Ballroom (Atheneum Hall 105)

Click HERE to RSVP.

