

Gregory Krippel, Ph.D.
Professor of Accounting

Academic Degrees Earned

- Ph.D., Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL, Accounting, 1991
- M.B.A., University of Oklahoma, Norman, Oklahoma, Business Administration, 1976
- B.B.A., University of Oklahoma, Norman, Oklahoma, Accounting, 1974

Academic Experience

Non-Academic Experience

Teaching Interests

- Financial Accounting, Accounting Information Systems, Auditing

Research Interests

- Financial Accounting and Pedagogical Improvement in Accounting

Selected Publications

- Krippel, G. L., Moody, J., & Mitchell, S. (in press, 2016). The CPA credential delivers high value. Journal of Accountancy.
- Krippel, G. L. & Mitchell, S. J. (2014). The CMA Advantage: How Much More Could You Earn? Strategic Finance, 38-46.

Selected Service Engagements

Professional Memberships (Past and Present)

Recognition

- 2015: The Lybrand Certificate of Merit Award, The Institute of Management Accountants. The CMA Advantage: How Much More Could You Earn? by Gregory L. Krippel and Sheila Mitchell, CPA.
- 2012: The Lybrand Certificate of Merit Award, The Institute of Management Accountants. Our 2011 article published in the November issue of Strategic Finance entitled "What's Your CMA Worth?" was recognized as one of the top 11 articles in 2011.